

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 25.

ALWAYS RESPECT THE LOWLY.—The New York Herald relates the following incident, which has its lesson:

A servant girl went to a leading dry goods house in the city to purchase a cloak. The clerk who waited upon her, after displaying one or two patterns, rudely refused to show her any more, and she left the store. The facts came to the knowledge of her employer, who communicated them to the proprietor of the establishment. This led to an interview between the parties, and the offending clerk was pointed out by the girl and instantly dismissed by his employer. "I want you all my employees to understand," said the dry goods millionaire, "that a servant girl who comes into my store to purchase goods is as much important to me as the richest lady in the city. The people are my customers, and it is to their support that I owe my business success."

A MAHOMEDAN BARRISTER.—Among the names of those recently called to the bar in the Middle Temple, London, appears that of Bud roodeen Tyahjee. This gentleman is a Mahomedan, and the first ever called to the English bar. The oaths of allegiance, &c., were administered to him in the usual terms, but he was sworn on the Koran. He intends to practice at the bar in Bombay, where he will be the first disciple of the Prophet who has ever held such a position in India.
